1. The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the plane was the cold air. It felt like a giant hand reaching out to grab me.

2. The second thing I noticed was the silence. It was a heavy, oppressive silence that seemed to be waiting for me.

3. The third thing I noticed was the smell. It was a mix of old wood, dust, and something that I couldn't quite identify.

4. The fourth thing I noticed was the view. It was a vast, open landscape that stretched out as far as the eye could see.

5. The fifth thing I noticed was the people. They were all looking at me with a mix of curiosity and suspicion.

6. The sixth thing I noticed was the time. It was late in the afternoon, and the sun was setting over the horizon.

7. The seventh thing I noticed was the sound. It was a low, rumbling sound that seemed to be coming from the ground.

8. The eighth thing I noticed was the taste. It was a strange, metallic taste that seemed to be on my tongue.

9. The ninth thing I noticed was the touch. It was a rough, textured touch that seemed to be on my skin.

10. The tenth thing I noticed was the thought. It was a single, simple thought that seemed to be in my mind.

11. The eleventh thing I noticed was the feeling. It was a deep, gut-level feeling that seemed to be in my chest.

12. The twelfth thing I noticed was the sight. It was a single, simple sight that seemed to be in my eyes.

13. The thirteenth thing I noticed was the sound. It was a single, simple sound that seemed to be in my ears.
